

I think its wrong to try to slow the growth of a company in these united states. if they are not terrorists or somethreat to the countries well being ....then let them earn a living...leave our right entact....stop the madness and quit trying to limit the satellite radios companies. I support xm